

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to announce PACES PAideia will incorporate a TWO DAY PER WEEK FORMAT beginning in Fall of 2017.

Besides the encouragement from our current families to become a two-day program, we acknowledge we cannot teach our entire syllabus in one day of instruction per week! Additionally, parents have requested guided instruction in some of the homework activities. These activities will be completed in a group guided setting on the second-day of instruction.

Our second day will be dedicated to extended instructional time in all subjects: Cultulative History, English, Rhetoric, Logic, Latin, Math and Science. This is the same excellent delivery of Socratic Discussion, debate, investigation, practice, and discovery that PACES Paideia families have come to expect and respect in this Classical education program.

For years we have been pressing toward more instructional time as part of our “best practices” strategies. Through videos, parent instruction, and teacher training we continually strive to improve in both parent and student education. In this changing environment, we are committed to:

- Provide a classically integrated curriculum
- Provide structured classrooms and grading systems
- Teach using the Socratic method
- Educate the WHOLE CHILD, body, mind, and spirit
- Provide opportunities to build campus community through on and off- campus events
- Provide annual parent training
- Work with parents on special needs of students
- Work with students’ schedules
- Connect parents and students through online communication and grading services
- Offering community events to friends and family

Our program continues to be priced below the competition.

Many believe that PACES PAideia is the best community building, culture changing, leadership developing, spiritually enriching, academic program in the country. For over 25 years dedicated parents like yourself have donated time and energy to this collaborative program that has produced educational excellence. Very few local educational entities have the benefit of over two decades of success. It is my great privilege to continue to serve as the director of a program which is so highly regarded. As always, I am pleased to be the founder of a movement that God is using to change individuals and communities.

Registration will open for existing students on April 1st and new students will begin registering on April 4th. We anticipate 2017-2018 will be another exciting academic year of developing transformational leaders.
